Opportunities for Ministers

Ministry is the way in which the Church continues what Christ began and still intends, namely, the salvation of humanity and the transformation of the world. All baptized and confirmed Christians receive a call and gifts enabling them to participate in this mission. When lay people carry out Christ's work as priest, prophet, and king in their own proper way through public activity authorized by the Church, we call this lay ministry. Here are some of the ways you might be able to answer that call:

Lectors - Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

If you have a calling for any of the above ministries please see Fr. Joe Totton and he will arrange for training.

We need your help - thank you for your cooperation.

Remembrance Quilt

If you have not handed in your block for the remembrance quilt please return by September 30th.

Thank you to all who have participated - you are all a blessing to me!

My blessings to all, Marge

Have you ever thought about becoming a Benedictine Oblate? Over the years lay people, married or single, men or women, Catholic or non-Catholic, have found spiritual nourishment and mutual support for their prayer life by living the Gospel values as found in St. Benedict's Holy Rule. We all need proven structures in this confusing world.

Benedictine Oblates associated with Conception Abbey welcome you to get more information.
