This program, co-sponsored by our diocesan Human Rights and Respect Life Offices, provides an opportunity for us to support local organizations dedicated to defending the dignity of the person and the sanctity of human life through spiritual growth, pastoral care, education, or public policy in order to empower members of affected groups and break the cycle of vulnerability. 100% of all donations are distributed locally.

for every purpose under heaven."*

" . . . a time to heal. . . "

Mary Fisher, Ron Kretzer, Kathy Barton, the elderly, and the chronically ill and their caregivers. For the souls in purgatory. For those who attend to the dying and grieving; for medical professionals and first responders; for the homeless, the lonely and those lost in this world; for those who harbor hatred and especially for those who have no one to pray for them. For the conversion of the enemies of the Good and of the Church; for the protection of children and the innocent.

Dear Friends in Christ,

In today's Gospel, we hear that "many of His disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer followed Him." We hear a lot of talk about the notion of "encounter" today. But a true and authentic encounter with Christ that is not centered on ourselves necessarily means that we acquiesce to the Word of God and stay. It's not as if we can "be friends" with Christ and boldly not follow His Word. The teaching on the Eucharist is a hard teaching. Only the Catholic and Apostolic Church (and schismatic Churches with origins in the Apostles) maintain it. Everyone else has "walked away." How many other teachings of Christ that are difficult are we tempted to walk away from and "return to our former way of life"? A true encounter with the Lord means that we want to convert, that is, turn toward Him and not backwards.

THANK YOU

THANK YOU MADGELYN AND JOHANNA GORDAN FOR THE BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS ON THE ALTER AND FOR DECORATING THE HALL FOR OUR CELEBRATION FOR THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY. EVERYONE ENJOYED THE FEAST AND VERY APPRECIATIVE OF THE WORK YOU PUT IN TO MAKE IT LOOK VERY FESTIVE.
