

From Fr. Totton's Desk

The following reflection is based on the readings for the 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time. (If you are attending the 10am Mass you will hear the readings for the Feast of St. Ann, so if you would like to catch up on what I have written here, please read the following: 1 Kings 3:5, 7-12; Romans 8: 28-30; and Matthew 13:44-52)

King Solomon was widely regarded for his Wisdom, but in the first reading today, we see that the gift he actually asked from the Lord was not wisdom per se, but, “an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong.” In other words, Solomon asks for right judgment. Of course, we are all familiar with the story of the two women, both claiming to be mother of a living baby, who bring their case before Solomon who, ostensibly proposes cutting the child in half. The real mother reveals herself by offering to allow the other woman to have the child rather than taking his young life. Solomon's wise judgment brings the truth to the fore.

We live in an age when “judgment” is often considered a bad thing, or something we should avoid. Several years ago, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, famously said, “who am I to judge?” and his words, as well as the words of Jesus who said, “judge not lest ye be judged” have often lately been taken out of context and used a cover for indecision and even cowardice. You should recall that “Right Judgment” is one of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit (see Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 1303). In this case, with regards to what is right and wrong, it is necessary to make distinctions. Not all options are truly good (i.e. not all choices lead us to God!). Some choices we face are between good and evil, while other choices have to do with greater and lesser goods, but we should always employ Right Judgment in our deliberations.

In the Gospel, Jesus describes the Kingdom of Heaven as: 1) a buried treasure; and 2) a pearl of great price. In both instances, he says that this object is so great, so valuable, that one who finds it is willing to sacrifice all other things - even lesser goods - in order to obtain it. I challenge you, using the gift of Right Judgment that you have been given, to take an inventory of your life. What passions, what possessions, what delusions, what relationships prevent you from seeking after that Pearl of Great Price? The next gift after Right Judgment is Courage, now employ that gift to sacrifice those obstacles which keep you from seeking the Kingdom!

CATHOLIC CHARITIES OF ST. JOSEPH NEEDS YOUR HELP!

One of the Catholic Charities' mission is to provide basic needs to families who can't afford the essentials.

CC's cupboards are in need of the following items: laundry soap, dish soap, bleach, paper towels, toilet tissue, Kleenex, deodorant, shampoo, soap, tooth paste, tooth brushes, diapers, baby wipes and other items for personal hygiene needs.

Just drop them in the box in the back of the church marked "Catholic Charities" at your convenience.

Thank you for your generosity to help those in need that live in our surrounding area.

News from St. Ann's Plattsburg

St. Ann is their parish's patron saint!

- Wednesday July 26 - 6:30pm Solemn High Mass
- Sunday July 30—10am Mass (using the proper texts for the Feast of Ss. Ann and Joachim)

Deacon Bill Fox will assist at Sunday Mass.

- Parish Potluck dinner following the 10am Mass on Sunday, July 30. Please bring a dish to share. Parish will provide hot dogs and hamburgers labor courtesy of our local Knights of Columbus Council.

All from both parishes are invited to come!!

Have you seen the priest who wears the cassock and a big hat walking around St. Joseph? Do you know he's written a book? In Fr. Lawrence Carney's new book "Walking the Road to God", Father shares some of the tales of his journeys and the people he has encountered.

On Saturday, July 29th Blessings of St. Joseph will host Fr. Carney in a book-signing from 11:00am to 3:00pm. Books will be available for sale. Blessings is located at the corner of Belt Highway and Charles Street. If you have questions, please call 816-676-2537.
