Joan Mitchell, Ron Kretzer, Bob Everett, Mildred Ottinger, Eileen Grier, Roxie Moore, Kathy Barton, Ed Fisher, Amy Dobrowansky, the elderly and infirm, the chronically ill and their caregivers. For the souls in purgatory. For those who attend to the dying and grieving; for medical professionals and first responders; for the homeless, the lonely and those lost in this world; for those who harbor hatred and especially for those who have no one to pray for them. For the conversion of the enemies of the Good and of the Church; for the protection of children and the innocent.

For our home bound parishioners:

Carolyn O'Brien, Josephine Jackson, Delores White, Eileen Grier, Brent LaFollette

One of the Catholic Charities' missions is to provide basic needs to families who can't afford essentials.

CC's cupboards are in need of the following items: laundry soap, toilet tissue, tooth brushes, deodorant, shampoo, soap, tooth paste, diapers, baby wipes, and other items for personal hygiene needs. Just drop them in the box in the back of the church marked "Catholic Charities" at your convenience. Thank you for your generosity to help those in need that live in our surrounding area.

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combating sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombusmankcsj.org if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Victim Advocate, Kathleen Chastain, at 816.392.0011 or chastain@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

Dear Friends in Christ,

When Our Lord asks Peter, Andrew, James and John to follow Him, little did they know what would become of their lives. Peter--petros--the rock of the Church which Christ would find. His life would include denying Christ three times, being forgiven. Peter would die in Nero's circus for his Lord being crucified upside down, not finding himself to be worthy enough to die as His Savior did. St. Andrew would die in much the same way--crucified on what is called a saltire--or an X. St. James the Greater, one of the sons of Thunder who shows his ambition and his temper is zealous for the Messiah after being called to discipleship. He would eventually be beheaded in Jerusalem by Herod Agrippa, his accuser, according to tradition, being converted by his martyrdom. Finally, St. John the Evangelist, is the only apostle not to die a "red" martyrdom, but rather lives out his days caring for the Blessed Virgin who had been entrusted to Him by Christ and founding a Church in Ephesus. He dies a "white" martyrdom of persecution and exile.

All of the Apostles have one thing in common--they had the gift of faith and perseverance. They did not know what it would mean to follow the Messiah when they were called, but they accepted the call. Each of us are much the same--we do not know how our lives will end on this earth; but we believe in the promise that Christ has given to those who are faithful until the end--eternal life in the Kingdom.

Father Eric Schneider
