CATHOLIC CHARITIES OF ST. JOSEPH NEEDS YOUR HELP! One of the Catholic Charities' mission is to provide basic needs to families who can't afford the essentials. CC's cupboards are in need of the following items: laundry soap, dish soap, bleach, paper towels, toilet tissue, Kleenex, deodorant, shampoo, soap, tooth paste, tooth brushes, diapers, baby wipes and other items for personal hygiene needs. Just drop them in the box in the back of the church marked "Catholic Charities" at your convenience.

Dear Friends in Christ,

What is the “better part” about which Our Lord is speaking? Classically speaking, this text was the root of our understanding of the active and contemplative life. The active religious life being more geared to an apostolate, the contemplative being focused simply on the Presence of God and prayer. Even those who are in the active life (religious men and women attached to an apostolate, or diocesan priests) have the duty to be rooted in the contemplative life. What does this mean for all Christians? It means that although we must toil, labor and work, that we, too must be rooted in the contemplative life, Scripturally expressed by kneeling at the feet of Jesus Christ and contemplating Him. In the Gospel of John, Our Lord clearly teaches that “you can do nothing without Me.” He means this when He says it. Unless we are attached to Him, we are powerless to have a relationship with the Triune God. He is our Mediator. In another place, when St. Phillip asks Jesus to show him the Father, Jesus retorts that the Apostles have been with Him all of this time and they still ask Him to show them the Father? In other words, we have access to Heaven through Jesus Alone. There is no other way. Truly, it is the contemplative life, the life of prayer in which we all must be rooted.
