CATHOLIC CHARITIES OF ST. JOSEPH NEEDS YOUR HELP! One of the Catholic Charities' mission is to provide basic needs to families who can't afford the essentials. CC's cupboards are in need of the following items: laundry soap, dish soap, bleach, paper towels, toilet tissue, Kleenex, deodorant, shampoo, soap, tooth paste, tooth brushes, diapers, baby wipes and other items for personal hygiene needs. Just drop them in the box in the back of the church marked "Catholic Charities" at your convenience.

Dear Friends in Christ,

Today's Gospel causes us to think about what is really important—why do we store up treasure? We cannot take it with us when we die, very simply. We all long for a future which will be care free, a homeland where everything will be okay. This is how the desire is built in us to be in union with someone else, namely, God Himself. Being miserly, as the character in the parable that Our Lord gives today, is this longing that is distorted by focusing its end on this life instead of the next. When we do this, which we all do, we put our final end in our future on this earth. That's not to say we shouldn't plan or have savings. But, when we do it solely for that time in which everything will be perfect, we should know and understand that that time will not come until we are in complete union with the Blessed Trinity. It's not by storing up physical riches and building barns for more stuff. Materialism is a cheap and worldly-focused substitute for the spiritual treasure that is our inheritance. When we live lives focused primarily on the world to come, we become less and less concerned about finding fulfillment in possessions and more fulfilled in our relationship with God. It is in this way that we have true freedom.
