Dear Friends of Christ

On this Third Sunday of Easter, we find the Risen Lord at the Sea of Tiberius mysteriously appearing to speak with His Apostles. Perhaps St. John says it best in the midst of confusion because he intuits clearly that this is the voice of Jesus when he says "It is the Lord." In kind of a continuation of St. John's narration of he and Peter finding the empty tomb, John sees and believes first in the resurrection, but allows Peter to enter into the empty tomb first. John recognizes the glory of the Risen Lord by His voice, but Peter is the one to jump into the sea and swim ashore to meet Him. It is at the Sea of Tiberius that Peter is forgiven for his denial of the Lord during His Passion. It is here where the Lord announces what sort of death Peter will experience by following Christ. For those of us who follow the Lord, we are often led where we do not want to go. Yet, by following Christ, we will be fed not only here on this earth by His Risen Body and Blood, but also in the life to come.

Donut Sunday Hospitality is today following Mass. Hospitality is built into the life of our faith community for the sole purpose of providing a time and space for adults to meet, visit and get to know one another socially and even begin or maintain lasting friendships.

May 29th , the fifth Sunday in May, will be the Knights of Columbus Sunday for readings, ushering, and greeting.
Please wear your Knights of Columbus shirts.
