Second Collection-TODAY

As we get ready to celebrate Memorial Day let us not forget to honor our loved ones buried in our cemetery.

We should also direct our attention to our outstanding property. It is through the tireless work of the board members that it is maintained so beautifully. To be assured of improving and maintaining it we will be having a second collection on May 28th. Also, keep in mind donations can be given at any time of the year.

Let us be generous in supporting St. Joseph's Cemetery.

A MIRACLE YOU SHOULD SEE IN LOVING MEMORY
OF
SISTER MARY WILHELMINA
FOUNDRESS OF THE BENEDICTINES OF MARY, QUEEN OF APOSTLES

Hundreds of pilgrims have descended on a Benedictine monastery for religious sisters in rural Missouri in recent days after news began to spread on social media last week that the recently exhumed remains of the contemplative order's African American foundress appear to be incorrupt, four years after her death and burial in a simple wooden coffin. Sister Wilhelmina Lancaster, OSB, founded the Benedictine Sisters of Mary, Queen of the Apostles — best known for their chart-topping Gregorian chant and classic Catholic hymn albums — in 1995 at the age of 70, leaving the Oblate Sisters of Providence, her community of over 50 years, to do so.

.Known for her devotion to the Traditional Latin Mass and her faithfulness to Benedictine contemplation and the Liturgy of the Hours, she died at age 95 on May 29, 2019, on the vigil of the solemnity of the Ascension.

Roughly four years later, on the solemnity of the Ascension in the Latin rite, the abbess and sisters decided to move her body to a final resting place inside their monastery chapel, a long-standing custom for founders and foundresses.

Expecting to find bones, the Benedictine Sisters instead unearthed a coffin with an apparently intact body, even though the body was not embalmed and the wooden coffin had a crack down the middle that let in moisture and dirt for an unknown length of time during those four years.

According to Catholic tradition, incorruptible saints give witness to the truth of the resurrection of the body and the life that is to come. The lack of decay is also seen as a sign of holiness: a life of grace lived so closely to Christ that sin with its corruption does not proceed in typical fashion but is miraculously held at bay.
