CATHOLIC CHARITIES' CHRISTMAS SHINING

STAR webpage is filled with children's hopes and wishes for Christmas gifts. Check out their website, www.catholiccharities-kcsj.org/christmas-shining-star and choose a child's gift list to sponsor. From there, you can sponsor a child and either make a financial donation or shop for items from their list and deliver them to the Catholic Charities Kansas City or St. Joseph offices. Parents will pick up the gifts on the first weekend in December, take them home to wrap and place under the tree, and be blessed by the ability to provide a happy and joy filled holiday for their children.

You are an awesome parish community and the best part is we did it with NO WORK. Thank you to everyone for your contribution.

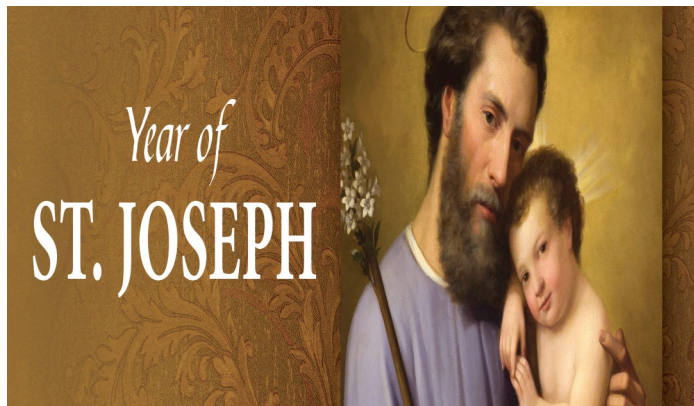

One of the Catholic Charities' missions is to provide basic needs to families who can't afford essentials.

CC's cupboards are in need of the following items: laundry soap, toilet tissue, tooth brushes, deodorant, shampoo, soap, tooth paste, diapers, baby wipes, and other items for personal hygiene needs.

Just drop them in the box in the back of the church marked “Catholic Charities” at your convenience.

Thank you for your generosity to help those in need that live in our surrounding area.

Hear from the new Order of Sisters in St. Joseph; Sister, Catherine of the Sisters in Jesus the Lord, will speak after the 6:00 PM Mass at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, St. Joseph, on Wednesday, November 17th. The program begins at 6:30 PM. All are welcome to come to OLOG's Marian Hall (in their church basement). Refreshments will be served. Program is sponsored by the St. Joseph St. Serra Club.

Dear Friends in Christ,

This weekend is the last “green weekend” in the liturgical calendar as the Solemnity of Christ the King is next weekend (the last Sunday in Time through the Year). And we are privileged to contemplate the inevitable—the end of the world, the Great Tribulation. While there are many prophecies out there today that claim this or that, the Tradition of the Church passed through the Holy Gospel and therefore, from the lips of the Lord Himself, we should always be pondering this day. We should live everyday as if it is our last on earth. We should live everyday as if the end of all things and the recapitulation of all things in Christ were imminent. Indeed, this is how the Apostle to the Gentiles taught the early Christians to live as if the eternity touching time were always near to us. When we put it off in the distance, we fail because we no longer live our lives in time with any longing, with any purpose—we languish in mediocrity instead of trying to live in greatness which is ultimately to spend our days in the Presence of the Almighty. At each and every Holy Mass, we get a glimpse of the Lord among us who is our Judge, who sits on the throne as the Lamb who was slain. The end is near—we have always believed this. This is nothing new to Christianity. To live the Christian life of penance, prayer and the sacraments is the key which binds us to Christ, Our Lord and Master, that when He does appear, we will be prepared with lighted torch ready to receive Him as the Bridegroom of our souls.
