Journey With The Pope

His Words, Your Journey, Together

'I will give you a little piece of advice; after each Confession, sit still for a few moments in order to remember the forgiveness you received. Hold on to that peace in your heart, that inner freedom you are feeling; not your sins, which no longer exist, but forgiveness that God has granted you, the caress of God the Father. Just hold on to that; don't let it fade. The next time you go to confession, think; I am going to receive again the embrace that did me so much good. Pope Francis

Dear Friends in Christ,

There are so many quote unquote types of acceptable relationships today in our society. The more advanced that the society gets, the more comfortable society gets, and the comfortable society gets, the more morally lax it becomes. While everyone yearns for relationship in his/her life, Jesus lays down the true meaning of Genesis—marriage is the primordial sacrament or sign. We see it with God the Father and His People Israel, we see it with Christ and the Church, and then we see it lived naturally and supernaturally in marriage between a male and a female which is open to life. Such a fundamental truth, one would think, would not be offensive, yet simply for reiterating what the Lord Incarnate has laid down for peace, order and joy in our lives is one of the most controversial statements today. Marriage is meant to last until death and not end in divorce. Marriage is meant to beget children and populate the earth. Even in the Gospel, one could see how the followers of the Lord try and rebuke children from approaching the Lord. Let us welcome this truth of the Holy Gospel in our lives, that the Word of God might live in us, shape our thinking, and bring us joy which comes from following the way set forth for us from the mouth of God Himself.

Make plans to walk in St. Joseph on Sunday, October 3rd. Every step you take will be to acknowledge that human life is important at all stages and ages.

Walk the distance you prefer.

1:50pm Leave from parking lot at Frederick Blvd. Baptist

2:15pm Pass MWSU Spring Sports Center 2:40p, Walk past East Hills Library Arrive at Bishop Le Blond Stadium

Your presence and support is important
