Dear Friends in Christ

Making friends with dishonest wealth is one of the more perplexing of the pericopes in the Gospel of Luke. Yet, frankly, it simply means that if we cannot be trusted with small, worldly things that do not have a big spiritual value, then how can we be trusted with more serious decisions that affect our position in eternity? In other words, we cannot be expected to be honest all of the sudden one day on a big decision if we've habituated ourselves to lie in small things or to commit small lesser sins of theft, even if not gravely immoral. The moral life is built on smaller things first that are not as grave as to create a good habit, also called a virtue. When we possess a particular virtue, it is a sort of freedom where we do not even have to consider much what is right and what is wrong—we are habituated in our memory and our will to simply choosing the good. This comes from repeating things over and over. In the supernatural world in which God gives a particular grace for a supernatural end (heaven) and not just being naturally good, He builds upon the foundation we have already laid by cooperating with Him in small matters. Indeed, being honest in lesser things prepares us to make ultimate moral decisions that will determine our salvation.

The Golden Wedding Anniversary Mass will be celebrated at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Sunday, September 25, 2022, at the 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM Cathedral Masses. Bishop James Johnston will preside at each mass honoring the Golden Wedding couples. A card and gift will be presented to each couple. The event is for the couples and their immediate family. The celebration includes those couples whose 50th Wedding Anniversary falls between January 1, 2022, and December 31, 2022. A light reception will be held between each Mass at the Cathedral. No shuttles will be provided. Parking attendants will be directing guests to free parking spaces close to the cathedral, when the cathedral parking lot is full. Couples wanting to attend or to be honored should contact the office.
